

XM Radio is a service that I pay for, it is not owned or operated by the public. Keep your greedy little policies out of my listening pleasure. XM radio spent millions to provide great music, news and information to its CUSTOMERS not to the public for free. FCC should have nothing to do with how this company runs its business, or what content its customers decide to pay for.